Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments: On page 24, lines 21-page 25, line 9, of the applicant's specification the "computer readable medium" which is recited in claims 24-36 found to include a "computer readable storage device" and "signals". Though the "computer readable storage device" is defined to be a statutory in the specification cited above, In the same specification cited above, the "computer readable signals" are defined to include medium that are found to be non-statutory.

In order to correct this, examiner and Applicant's representative made a telephone interview and agreed to replace the term "computer readable storage medium" with "computer readable storage device" in the claims 24-36..
